ALTRU FAMILY YMCA
BASKETBALL ACADEMY

Stephanie McWilliams is a local athlete who attended Grand Forks Central High School. She was a four year varsity athlete in basketball, volleyball and softball, being the first female athlete to earn 12 varsity letters. After having the opportunity to play any of the three sports at the collegiate level, she made the decision to play division 2 basketball at the University of Minnesota Crookston. Here, she was recognized as the team's defensive specialist and for being a utility player. She's known for her strong work ethic, dedication, leadership skills and competitiveness.
